ABOUT US

In 1922, Japanese confectionery giant Glico Co., Ltd. introduced Glico Creamer, a delicious red box. 44 years later, Glico released a new product into the world of the food: a chocolate-covered biscuit stick, Pocky. Inspired by the Japanese custom of the umagaki board made while eating those chocolate-covered sticks, they named the new product "Pocky." Hence, Pocky was born.

Pocky is about sharing happiness with friends, family, coworkers — anyone, anytime, anywhere! Just open a box, pass it around, and watch the smiles and happiness spread.

With plenty of sticks in each box, Pocky is the perfect snack for bringing people closer together and leaving the room. Or enjoy one on the couch and share Pocky with the special someone.

Great to have around the house. With the no mess bundles of the Pocky stick, your kids won't have chocolate all over their faces.

Perfect for game nights! Pocky is the perfect party. Open a box of Pocky and pass it in a glass, watch which flavor is to you.
